

May 2011

Ms. Blanchard's sixth grade class learns about catapults first hand with their handmade lever catapults. The sturdy mechanisms had to shoot marshmallows into a ring and plate a distance away. Students built their catapults out of clothespins, spoons, and clips.

